"The All Parish Meeting is a chance for the congregation as a whole to enthusiastically launch the Search Committee on their journey with our input as to our hopes, fears, and dreams. The Search Committee will create a Parish Profile, which represents St. Clement's - both as it is now, and how we believe God is calling us to be - to prospective clergy.

Those clergy need to know who we are and be convinced that the transformation we seek is the sort of transformation that they feel called to help lead us into. The Profile will also include our desires and hopes for the attributes of our next priest."

SCHOOL SNAPSHOTS

Summer School Days at St. Clement's

The class of B1 helped lead prayer during Chapel.

Our school hosted an Art Show for our families to attend. It featured artwork from all our classes. Here a student from B3. shows his parents his 3D sculpture art.

A student from B4 shows her symmetrical letter "M" with things that start with "M".

Ms. Biehn, our Art teacher for the summer, shows a student from C2 his printmaking masterpiece.

MONTHLY PARISH BRIEF

School News

- St. Clement's School starts their new year on Monday, August 15, 2022.
- Enrollment for the 2022 - 2023 school year is at 114 students with 40 enrolled in After School Care Program.
- The new Playground unit, hopefully, will be installed before school starts.
- The School has begun its Accreditation with the National Association for the Education of Young Children. Their current Accreditation status expires in March, 2023.
- The School is going to continue to follow the Department of Human Services' COVID Guidelines, even though students are getting vaccinated.

Vestry News

- Two technicians came from the Audio Visual Company to access the audio system in the Church. The conclusion was that the system is in excellent condition. The sound was adjusted to maximize the volume and eliminate any feedback or static.
- The Property Committee is working on revising the Facility Use Policies and Procedures to keep up with the growing demand for the use of our facilities.

Congratulations to our 2022 high school graduates, Soane Lino, Jr. and Max Nakatsuji. As is our custom, each will receive a gift of $500 toward their future endeavors.

Do not forget to attend the All Parish Meeting
