THE PARISH OF ST. CLEMENT
An Inclusive and Caring Christian Community

June 2017

From Canon Kate

JUNE, JOURNEY, AND JESUS

June is a month that represents lots of change in many households. It is the end of the school year for some; a time of graduation parties, proms, and anticipation of the future. For many it is the time to search for or start new summer jobs in order to help pay for college, books, or that most desired set of four wheels. People move in June. People make summer and vacation plans and look to the future in a new way. Even if you, yourself, are not graduating; you probably have children, grandchildren, nieces and nephews who will be and that means some planning or at least gift-giving on your part...it changes your future and your lives together in some way.

At the Parish of St. Clement we, too, are heading into June. There will be even more transition and change. About a year and a half ago we saw the retirement of Rev. Liz Zivanov after fourteen years of ministry at St. Clement's. At the end of 2016 we said goodbye to Julia and Christopher Golding. This May we welcomed our new Director of Music, Karol Nowicki. Lots of change has been afoot.

We are at a new point in our journey toward the calling of a new rector. Your Search Committee has been hard at work interviewing a number of candidates and plans to submit three names to the vestry for final interviews. It is anticipated that the vestry will interview the three finalists in June and July. A new rector will be coming soon and I am sure that most of you are very excited.

Another word for a journey with a religious or spiritual purpose is pilgrimage. I like to think of the time of transition here at St. Clement's as not only as a time of change, but also as a time of pilgrimage together. Jesus will be present with us on the journey and even lead us on the journey. Our journey becomes a pilgrimage if we invite Jesus along the way.

June, Journey, and Jesus. This is a time of change and transition for all of us at St. Clement's and Jesus helps us make this journeying time a pilgrimage if we let him. My Clinical Pastoral Education (CPE) supervisor once gave me a bumper sticker as I finished my eleventh unit of CPE. I'd like to share that bumper sticker message with you now:

"Change is inevitable, Growth is optional."

God bless you all as we pilgrimage and hopefully grow together,

*~~ Blessings,
Canon Kate+*

The Bishop is Coming!

The Bishop is Coming!

Sunday, June 11, Bishop Bob Fitzpatrick will be at St. Clement's.

We will also recognize EfM graduates at the 10:15 service.

♥ The Family Ministry team wishes to thank all of the many generous book donors and all of the volunteers who helped at the Vintage Book and Media Sale. Mahalo to the Chapman, Frank, Haworth, McManus and Pleadwell-Harper families, as well as Beth Finke and Canon Kate+ for all of their support sorting, displaying, and selling well over two thousand books and recordings over two days, not to mention breaking the sale down and donating the surplus to Institute for Human Services and the Salvation Army.

♥ To everyone in the Parish for their generous coin and cash contributions to the Kiva coin box drive, including the mysterious donors “B” and “D.”

An Opportunity to Help Our Neighbors

A new city housing project has opened on Piikoi Street for homeless families with children. At least one parent is working and the family can pay rent. This Piikoi project (sometimes called the Hassinger project) has gotten vocal opposition from neighbors which you may have seen on the news. In order to let these families know they are welcome here, St Clement’s, along with Catholic Charities and other churches in our area, is collecting new or slightly-used household goods for the families moving in to the project. The needs, as you would expect, are kitchen utensils, dishes, pots and pans, towels, sheets (any size), laundry baskets, and other items that make a house a home. PLEASE DO NOT DONATE “JUNKY” ITEMS. This is not a rummage sale.

You may bring your items to the parish house during office hours or on Sundays. Kehau Kali has volunteered to coordinate the items and insure that they are delivered to the project manager. If you have questions, you can contact her at kehaukali@aol.com or 342-0375.

We will also include with our donations a tri-fold flyer about St. Clement’s to let the families know that they are welcome in our ohana. We also encourage having your children get involved by writing or creating cards to welcome these families to their new homes in Makiki.

Donations will be accepted until June 15 as families have begun to move in already. This is not a long project, just a very important and welcoming one. Mahalo for your thoughtfulness and generosity.

The Search Committee has been conducting Skype interviews over the past two weekends. Eight candidates were interviewed for the position of our Rector. The committee is now checking references and preparing to narrow the field to the three top candidates. This selection will be made over the next few weeks. The names of the final three candidates will then be provided to the vestry and the diocese. The candidates and their spouses will be invited to visit our parish, with the visits occurring on separate weekends. These visits provide the opportunity for the vestry and the Bishop to meet with and interview each of the candidates. The visits also provide an opportunity for the candidates to get to know St. Clement’s and for the congregation to get to know them.

As we reach this final stage in the search for our new rector, we ask for your continued support and ask you to join us in prayer:

"O gracious God, we ask You to lead us in Your most holy will. Help us to be open to the Holy Spirit and to place our trust in You and to remember that You walk with us always. We pray for Your guidance to find a pastor who will lead us, tend to us, and challenge us to be the best we can be. We ask this in the name of your Son, our Savior, Jesus Christ. Amen"

~~ Respectfully and gratefully submitted,
Adrienne Lau

Upcoming Events and Activities

Family Movie Night and Bar-B-Q
Saturday, August 12, 2017

Please plan to join us this summer for a family movie night and Bar-B-Q on the playground at St. Clement's School. On Saturday, August 12 at 6 pm we will gather on the playground (BYOLC - bring your own lawn chair) for a festive Bar-B-Q and movie night. We will tie a sheet up to the pillars of the music building and enjoy our movie while sitting outside on a summer evening. Please do plan to join us.

Annual Parish Retreat

Mark your calendars now. The Parish of St. Clement will be holding our annual Parish Retreat on Friday and Saturday, September 15 and 16 at Camp Mokule'ia. Plan to come and spend the day with us at the beach! Some people will be coming up on Friday night (optional) to sing songs around the campfire in anticipation of the retreat. Please do plan to join us for Friday/Saturday or just Saturday.

Good Friday Offerings
Mahalo Nui Loa!

As you may remember, our Good Friday offerings were designated for the Schneller School Renovation Project in Marka, Jordan, a suburb of Amman, and Ahli Arab Hospital, the Episcopal Diocese of Jerusalem's hospital in Gaza City. Our gifts totaling $5,393 were sent to the American Friends of the Episcopal Diocese of Jerusalem to be split between these two recipients. We recently received a mahalo letter from them that included a hand-written note from Anne Lynn, the President of AFEDJ. She wrote, "There couldn't be two more important institutions in our Holy Land to receive your generous support. Comfort and hope. Your donors offer both, and we're deeply grateful. Thank you!"

St. Clement's has a generous ohana that reaches out to help those in need both far and near. You are a blessing to all.

Sunday School
Easter Baskets

On Palm Sunday the Sunday School made a number of very creative and colorful Easter baskets. The children made them so that they could be distributed to a number of our shut-in parishioners. As they were being delivered in the Arcadia residence quite a number of staff members and residents commented on how bright and imaginative they were. Thanks to the Sunday School for thinking about others and helping to show that we care.

Welcome Fr. & Mrs. Clifford

The Rev. George Clifford will be assisting at St. Clement's in the future. Please welcome him and his wife Susan to our community.

The Rev. George Clifford served twenty-four years as an active duty U.S. Navy chaplain, retiring at end of 2005 with the rank of Captain. Assignments included duty at Marine Corps' Officer Candidates School, the Naval Academy, the Naval Postgraduate School, the staff of the Chief of Chaplains, Pearl Harbor (twice), at sea, and two years in London on exchange with the British Royal Navy. In addition to normal chaplain duties and the leadership responsibilities of a senior officer, he taught the philosophy of religion at the Naval Academy and ethics courses at the Naval Postgraduate School.

After the Navy, he lived for ten years in Raleigh, NC, before moving permanently to Honolulu almost two years ago. In retirement, he has traveled extensively as well as served as an interim and supply priest, taught at the Naval Postgraduate School as a Visiting Professor of Ethics and Public Policy, and written in the fields of ethics and theology.

Bobbie Brodhead Honored

On May 2nd the University of Hawaii celebrated 45 years of Rainbow Wahine athletics. Among the eight honorees recognized that night for their contributions to the program was St. Clement's own Bobbie Brodhead. A supporter since the 1970's, her sister, Ginny, reports that Bobbie has been a sports nut forever. Some members of St. Clement's were among the guests at three tables sponsored by the Brodhead sisters. A fun night was had by everyone.

WEAR RED ON PENTECOST Sunday, June 4

Sunday, June 4th is Pentecost, also known as the birthday of the church! We will celebrate this great feast of the church year by wearing red to church. The Sunday School is planning some extra special ways to commemorate the feast during our worship. There will even be a birthday cake for the church during our coffee hour to help us all celebrate!

Lenten Mite Boxes

We wish to thank all who took home the mite boxes during Lent and filled them up with your extra coins. The mite boxes were collected at Easter and raised over $660. The money from your Lenten offerings will help our youth to make micro-loans to inspiring entrepreneurs around the globe through the Kiva Loan project. This is a wonderful way for our youth to learn about micro-loans, entrepreneurial endeavors toward self-sufficiency, and to reach out globally to help others.

Vintage Book and Media Sale

At the end of April our Family Ministries team hosted a Vintage Book and Media Sale in the parish hall. Over $1,100 was raised for Family Ministries. The Family Ministries team would like to thank all of you who donated books, videos and CDs. Over 2,000 items were donated and it was a very successful sale. The Family Ministries team and the Sunday School and Youth had fun organizing and separating all of the books into categories the night before the sale along with their favorite: Pizza! Photos by the Family Ministries.

A View from the Pew

Every year I revisit the 50-day Easter Season, which ends at Pentecost, and how it compares with the first 50 days of the Jewish Exodus, which also ends at Pentecost. Of interest, because Christians use the solar Gregorian Calendar, and Jews use the lunar Hebrew Calendar, the two religions usually remember the Easter Season, the Exodus, and Pentecost on different dates.

Also of interest, I occasionally get challenged, usually by someone unhappy with my frequent comparisons of the Christian and Jewish experience, who argue my efforts make Christianity look like a “subset” of Judaism and Christians as “mini-Jews.” My response is usually to the effect that: Those who do not study history cannot learn from it; in the life of Jesus, his Disciples and Apostles, and for the first 300 years of Christianity the majority of Christians were in fact devout Jews; and the classic quote, “Those who do not study history are doomed to repeat it,” such as common bigotry against Jews, systemic Anti-Semitism, centuries of pogroms on Jewish populations, and eventually the Holocaust. I am convinced we should not fear history and, in the lasting words of Mohandas Gandhi when confronted by an angry Hindu questioning his Hindu faith because of his advocacy of tolerance, understanding, and unity, he famously but gently replied, “Yes I am. I am also a Muslim, a Christian, a Buddhist, and a Jew.” Which brings me, believe it or not, back to the Easter Season and the Exodus.

Easter and Exodus have a very important theme in common: Preparation. During Easter, we recall God revealed in Jesus preparing his Disciples for 40 days from his Resurrection to become his Apostles before he ascends into Heaven. In the Exodus, we recall God through Moses resurrecting the Tribes of Israel from slavery in Egypt and preparing them in the Sinai wilderness for 40 years to become his people again, and to return to the land promised to Abraham and his descendants ~ Canaan.

After 40 days of preparing his Disciples to become Apostles, Jesus ascended into Heaven, but not before directing his Disciples to remain in Jerusalem for the Festival of Pentecost occurring 10 days later. In other words, 40 days from his Resurrection, and 10 days after that, was the Festival of Pentecost which, not coincidentally, means “Fifty Days” in Hellenistic or Koine Greek.

Even so, why were the Jewish people already calling it Pentecost? Most Jews did not consider Jesus’ resurrection to be a Holy Day. It had just happened and most Jews had not even heard about it. Instead, the Jewish people called it Pentecost because they were celebrating an event that happened over 1,000 years before Jesus’ resurrection. They were recalling a very special day when Moses, 50 days from the original Passover, after leading the people of Israel in their escape out of Egypt for 10 days into the Sinai wilderness, stopped at the base of Mt. Sinai to camp and rest. There, Moses ascended Mt. Sinai, where he spent 40 days with God, who appeared to him in a vision of an inextinguishable Burning Bush, and where he was further prepared to lead the people of Israel back to Canaan. After 40 days with God, or 50 days from the first Passover, Moses came down from Mt. Sinai and gave the people of Israel God-revealed in God’s own Word, what became the basis of Jewish Law and the inspiration for the words of the Prophets who came later, the Ten Commandments. In other words, the Jewish people call this day Pentecost ~ in English Fifty Days ~ because it occurred after 10 days of trekking into the Sinai wilderness, and after 40 days of God preparing Moses on Mt. Sinai, which was 50 days from the first Passover.

Even so, why did Jesus think it so important for his Disciples to celebrate Pentecost after he ascended into Heaven? Nothing is said specifically about this in the Bible, but we can surmise that Jesus, being God-revealed in a human being, much like God-revealed in God’s own Word to the people of Israel over 1,000 years before, was cognizant that on Pentecost God was preparing to imbue his Disciples with God’s self by filling them with God the Holy Spirit, thus making them his Apostles.

Said another way, it was Moses who experienced God in a vision of a Burning Bush, who assisted God in freeing the people of Israel, who became a messenger of God-revealed in God’s own Word 50 days from the first Passover, and who thereafter led the people of Israel in their return to the Promised Land. Likewise, it was Jesus’ Disciples, literally his followers, who 50 days from his Resurrection in a vision of Flames of Fire experienced God the Holy Spirit and became his Apostles, literally his messengers on the Festival of Pentecost, and who in God-revealed on their ecstatic Tongues delivered God’s own Word to the people of Jerusalem that very same day, and who thereafter went out into the world to help lead God’s children back to the Way of the Lord, free them from sin, reunite them with God.
